

Rising Sun Reenactment

September 30 - October 2, 2016

Pack your duds, feed your hound, and load up the truck. Calling all able-bodied sons (and daughters) to come to the Rising Sun Town Park on Wilson Avenue in Rising Sun, Maryland.

Company A, 37th Regiment, North Carolina Volunteer Troops, and 1st Regiment, North Carolina Artillery, Battery C, C.S.A., and the Town of Rising Sun will host the Annual Living History and Reenactment on September 30 - October 2, 2016. This event is By Invitation Only! Battles will take place on Saturday and Sunday afternoon along with demonstrations and camp life. Free Saturday evening meal will be provided by the town ... followed by period music and dancing. All those desiring to participate in a Candlelight Tour with scenarios may do so Saturday evening. Sunday morning there will be a church service and a memorial service at nearby Brookview Cemetery for a Civil War veteran. All branches of service and civilian impressions are welcome. The usual amenities plus powder issue will be provided.

A living history program will again be presented to the public and private school students who visit our encampment on Friday, September 30. The program starts at 8:00 a.m. so you will need to be in the Park on Thursday evening (Sept. 29) or very early on Friday morning. We have room for 11 or 12 stations that day. Every aspect of military and civilian life is welcome to be portrayed. We encourage your participation.

Over the years, we have had presentations of flags, quartermaster, ladies 'stuff', toys and games, musicians, spies, and cavalry along with artillery and infantry demonstrations. Please critique your knowledge and share this with the school children on Friday.

Please return this form as soon as your plans are firm. Send form and registration money to: John Houck, 400 Schucks Rd., Bel Air, MD 21015. If you have any questions about the School Program, please call Major General Houck at Home 410-836-2642, Cell 410-459-4280 or email him at GeneralReb@comcast.net.
